“These are some important things to know about Etiquette rules for the German holidays (your topic in English)”

THESE MUST BE SPECIFIC TO GERMANY/GERMAN CULTURE AND MUST INCLUDE STATISTICS SOMEWHERE.

Describe what you see in this picture that matters to your culture topic:

1. The picture is showing how Germans like to drink, spend time with friends and families, and have fun during the holidays.

Interpret the significance of the photo. What does it say about Germany or German-speaking people?

2. Even though drinking is permitted in Germany, public intoxication is frowned upon.

What's an advantage of the situation in the photo?

3. In the midst of all the fun, Germans still uphold public etiquettes. There's a limit to the situation to keep order during the holidays.

What's a disadvantage of this situation?

4. A tourist may not know the etiquettes in Germany and may do certain things that separates them from the rest like drinking before the host say "Prost."

What is similar about this situation to American culture?

5. Just like in America, holidays are fun but may be overwhelming for someone who's foreign.

How is the German situation different than in America?

6. I think some of the younger Americans don't have a sense of responsibility when it comes to drinking. Some will drink and wake up on the side of the street with a huge hangover.

How has this situation changed over time? (restate the question and use a complete sentence)

7. The German etiquette during the holidays may have changed over time due to globalization. Influence of other nations can affect the behaviors of some people during the holidays.
